14 Year Old Struck While Walking Along US Rt.1

The Traffic Enforcement Section is investigating a Serious Personnel Injury Collision involving a 14-year-old pedestrian. The collision occurred on US Rt. 1 at Hicks Road in Jessup, Howard County on Sunday, June 12, 2005 at approximately 12:08AM.

The 14-year-old female was walking north in the slow lane of US Rt.1 after leaving a party on Hick Road. While walking in the lane, she was struck by a northbound Ford Escort. Maryland State Police Medivac flew the 14 year old to the University of Maryland – Shock Trauma. She is currently in Critical Condition.

The driver of the Ford Escort is identified as Lois Larue Gulley, 64 years of age, of the 1000 blk. Elmridge Ave. Baltimore Maryland. Ms. Gulley was not injured in the collision, however she had been drinking.

Preliminarily, the collision is contributed to pedestrian error, however the investigation is continuing by Pfc. A. Meek. Charges against Ms. Gulley are pending the outcome of the investigation.
